A photograph of a highly ornate, classical-style interior courtyard. The space is enclosed by a wall of intricate stone carvings and classical columns. In the center, a set of double doors with decorative panels and diamond-shaped motifs is flanked by two niches containing classical busts. A stone balustrade with balusters runs along the perimeter of the courtyard. A single lantern hangs from the ceiling, which is also decorated with carvings. The floor is made of light-colored stone tiles.

MODERN

The background is a dark, monochromatic photograph of an ornate architectural interior. It features intricate carvings, including a large, detailed relief of a figure in the center, and classical columns with decorative capitals. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the textures and depth of the stone or plaster work.
